

NEW PARENT SUPPORT PROGRAM

Cooperative Parenting & Divorce

Cooperative Parenting and Divorce explores ways to reduce conflict between parents as their roles shift from married couple to co-parents. Participants will learn the impact of parental conflict on their child's development and to identify their contributions to conflict and how to control impulses. Anger management, communication and conflict resolution skills and children's issues will be addressed.

February 22
June 7
September 13
December 6

New Parent Support Program
Noon - 4 PM
Bldg. 12, MFS Classroom
Please, call early to register

703-614-7204

www.mccsHH.com