

Serving Headquarters Battalion, Marine Corps National Capital Region

Introducing...Corps Connections

Advertise your message to over 24,000 Marines and their family members in the Washington, D.C., National Capital Region Command!

Corps Connections, the newest Marine Corps Community Services promotional magazine for Marines, retired Marines, and Marine family members in the National Capital Region Command is set to debut in January 2008. Publishing quarterly, Corps Connections will reach Marines at Headquarters Battalion Henderson Hall, the Pentagon, Eighth & I, the Navy Yard, and wherever Marines are stationed in the National Capital Region.

Corps Connections offers a new advertising vehicle to cost-effectively target the area's military market. Our readership includes Marines—single Marines, retired Marines, civilian Marines—and their family members, support staff of those serving in the Washington D.C. area, and members of government organizations who patronize our facilities. As you may know, we have one of the highest grossing exchanges in the Marine Corps—it just makes financial sense to tap into a group with such high discretionary income!
